Get Organized in 2008 with Clutter Control

Is your office out of control? Are you living with CHAOS... "Can't Have Anyone Over Syndrome?" Do you have a couple of "scary" closets or rooms that are the dumping ground of your home? If you want to reclaim your space, HeartWork Organizing can help! They'll assist you with deciding what to keep, what to display, and what to share with others. Your stuff is an important part of you but if it is making you crazy, this workshop is for you!

Join us on Monday, January 28th, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Community Center. Registration is limited so call the library now to reserve your space! (856) 694-2833.

WHAT'S HAPPENING @your library®

“Books for Kids” a Success

Once again, members of the library’s Teen Advisory Council collected books for the statewide “Books for Kids” donation drive. This year, the Council chose to donate the books to South Jersey Healthcare—Elmer Hospital. The books will be placed in the hospital’s waiting rooms to be enjoyed by visiting children.

The Council would like to thank everyone who made a donation to “Books for Kids.”

Jon Latshaw and Jaimie Jenkins of the library's Teen Advisory Council are shown here with the drop box that they created for the library's annual "Books for Kids" book drive.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Pajama Storytime Enjoyed By All

The bell rang for children attending the PJ Storytime Thursday evening, December 6th. Stories about bedtime and trains were read. A game of “Conductor Says” was played before reading The Polar Express. A holiday craft ornament was made. Prizes were given out to some lucky winners and everyone received a goody bag. One of the best things about the evening was the fact that children wore their pajamas and brought a storytime pal to share in the fun.
